

THE EVOLUTION OF UNCLE SAM

Top left, the first recorded caricature of Uncle Sam as it appeared in Punch, the London paper, in 1844; lower left, first American cartoon showing Uncle Sam with striped trousers, published in 1852; right, Thomas Nast's Uncle Sam, the first with whiskers, starred vest and striped trousers; center, Uncle Sam as drawn today by Robert William Satterfield, The Day Book's famous cartoonist.

Clifford Arrick, telephone company official, appointed major in quartermaster's dept., U. S. A.

William Buford Carlile, new postmaster, voted as Republican at 1916 primary.